G.O.Ms.No.641. Dated 28th June 1948.

ORDER:-

Under the delegation specified in Fundamental Rule 101 (a) certain Heads of Departments and other competent authorities have power to grant maternity leave to women Government servants in their offices. As women have since been employed in many offices other those specified in the delegation in Fundamental Rule 101 (a), it is necessary to amend the above rule. His Excellency the Governor has decided that all Heads of Departments and other competent authorities should be empowered to grant maternity leave to Women Goverment Servants under their control and that Fundamental Rule 101 (a) should be amended accordingly. The following notification will be published in the Fort St. George Gazette.
